FERGUSON TO APPLY FOR AVO AGAINST VIGILANTE LEADER

“Upon legal advice Ray (Dennis) Ferguson will apply to the Local Court for an apprehended violence order (AVO) against the leader of the vigilantes in Ryde” said Justice Action spokesperson Brett Collins.

“Mr Sean Killgallon put a coffin outside Mr Ferguson’s home, issued statements to Mr Ferguson, others and the media that have put Mr Ferguson in fear and risk of physical harm.

Mr Ferguson has done nothing to merit those threats. He wants to live his life in peace and safety and hasn’t had any apology or guarantee that his entitlement to be secure in his own home will be respected” said Mr Collins.

“This harassment has already led to Mr Ferguson having to leave his home and is conspiring to deprive him of access to his Ryde home and any future safe home” said Barbara Biggs child protection campaigner.
